Mukilteo Wolverines Coach Expectations

Mukilteo Wolverines football and cheer coaches are expected to maintain a level of commitment that goes above a commitment to just the team that they coach. Coaches should be individuals who care about Mukilteo Wolverines as a whole and are willing to give the time and effort required to make this a successful organization for the kids.

It is the expectation of Mukilteo Wolverines that it's coaches participate in a variety of league/ team functions. To include but not limited to...coaches meetings and clinics, registration events and fund raising events.

- Coaches are expected to abide by League By-Laws
- Coaches are expected not only to make sure players receive the proper equipment but also help ensure all equipment is turned in at the end of the season.
- Coaches are expected to keep practice fields clean and maintained.
- Coaches are expected to remain after their game to make sure the sidelines are clean and ready for the next team.
- Coaches are expected to keep an open line of communication with parents and the Football/Cheer Director.
- Coaches are expected to provide updates to player rosters to the Football/Cheer Directors if changes arise.
- Coaches are expected to be available to assist at all other events.

The Mukilteo Wolverines believe in a positive coaching philosophy. Coaches are expected to adhere to the same philosophy.

Mukilteo Wolverines football coaches are expected to run and practice predetermined offensive and defensive schemes set by Mukilteo Wolverines in accordance with the Kamiak high school Football Program guidelines set forth.
